VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By LEONARD F. JAMES

What were the long-range plans for the settlement of Germany? And how does the present situation stand up to those plans? The Potsdam arrangement was for long-term occupation. That has gone over the side. And simply because Russia and the western powers have ceased to cooperate. Neither side fears Germany except as an ally of the other. Or perhaps circumstances force us to rationalize the situation in this manner. But if events are any sort of a guide, they indicate that Russia is correct, and that we are wrong. There is nothing to prove that our policy has created dependable German support, even in Western Germany. Does Europe Depend Upon Germany?

We have assumed that Germany is the heart of Europe, that it must be restored to prevent Europe from going communist. We have also been helped in that supposition by the Germans themselves. They know a good chance when they see one. We have worked along very definite lines. German industry must be restored because increased industrial output will help other nations to get on a sound footing. Germany must be educated along American democratic methods. We must and can persuade German mass thinking to accept our ideas.

But we have started from the wrong assumption that Germany sees the error of her past ways. (Continued on Page Six)

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

Action on a petition of the Lawrence Gas & Electric Co., for two poles on County road westerly from Main street was deferred by the board of selectmen Monday night until their next meeting as abutters are not in agreement as to where the poles are to be located.

Meanwhile abutters and representatives of the company will confer as to locations that will be agreeable to all concerned.

The board Monday night spent considerable time going over the budget and other matters that are expected to come up for consideration at the next town meeting.

Few Contests Loom In Coming Elections

Goldsmith Contest Won By Seniors

Many parents and friends as well as the ninth graders of Junior High and the entire student body of Pynchard attended the annual Goldsmith contest held in the Memorial auditorium last Friday afternoon. The winners, Gregory Arabian and Virginia Lawrence of the senior class, each received $5. The six participants, who were coached by Mervin E. Stevens of the Pynchard faculty, were as follows: seniors, Gregory Arabian and Virginia Lawrence; juniors, Robert Hineckley and Beanie Christie; sophomores, Raeburn Hathaway and Regina Levin.

In addition to a memorized selection each contestant read a selection from "Western Star", a poem by Stephen Vincent Benet about the western migration of the pioneers.

The judges' decisions were based chiefly on the reading selections which were assigned the day of the contest. The judges were William Johnson, superintendent of schools in Georgetown; Fessenden Wilder, senior master at Brooks School in North Andover, and Robert Higgins, instructor of English and public speaking at Phillips academy.

The boys' glee club under the direction of Mrs. Frank J. McArdle sang two selections and Edward Lawson of the senior class favored with several piano selections.

4 Inch Snowfall Brings Out Plows

A northeast snow storm Tuesday covered the greater part of New England and left a blanket of about 4 inches here, the largest of the season to date.

Town plows were ordered out early in the morning and in the afternoon they were joined by four hired plows to keep the roadways clear.

This was the first time the plows were out in January, although sanding trucks had been busy on several occasions earlier in the month.

Although more candidates may appear before the 4:30 o'clock deadline for filing this afternoon, the nomination papers in circulation up to this morning indicated that there would be only six contests for town offices in the election Monday, Mar. 6.

Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of public works and a member of the boards of selectmen and assessors, who announced his retirement from the former board two weeks ago and then last week said he might reconsider this action because of the demands made upon him to run for reelection, has filed papers in the board of public works contest. Candidates who file have until Feb. 9 to withdraw if they choose.

Nomination papers for the one place to be filled on the board of public works this year have been in circulation for Atty. Walter E. Mondale of 6 Florence st.

Two contests are in prospect for places on the school committee. This year the terms of three con-

Outlines Reasons For New Reservoir

The increasing use of town water annually and the limited capacity of the present water storage facilities are cited in a statement today by Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of public works, among the reasons why Andover needs a new reservoir.

Tentative plans to improve the existing conditions have been prepared and the board of public works is going to ask the town meeting for sufficient funds to complete this phase of the expansion of the water system to meet the ever-growing needs which were sharply brought to public attention during the recent dry summer and fall.

In his statement Mr. White said: "The constantly increasing use of water in Andover is rapidly approaching a point where daily demand equals daily supply. In fact during the past summer with its attendant dry cycle this point was reached on several days. Water use restrictions were not placed in effect although they were seriously considered as momentarily necessary; but had any of the pumping equipment failed at Haggetts pond station, or had a serious fire fighting demand arisen it surely would have been necessary to restrict domestic water use.

"Now whereas it may appear at first glance that the consideration of broken pumping equipment and major confagurations occurring simultaneously is to be taken as a severely pessimistic viewpoint, nevertheless such a combination of events could occur here and has occurred elsewhere. It is the duty of persons charged with the planning and construction of water systems to always consider such a pessimistic set of events and to make every effort possible by advance planning and construction to avoid ever having a situation arise whereby a lack of available

Dr. Shih To Speak At University Of Life Series Sunday

Andover residents are looking forward to the second meeting of the University of Life to be held Sunday evening at the Free church when they will hear Rev. Peter Y. F. Shih, B.D., S.T.M., D.D., pastor of the Chinese church of New England in Boston. He will speak at the chapel service at 7 o'clock on the subject, "China—Right Now". The devotional services will be led by the Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor of the South church.

Dr. Shih is a world traveler, preacher and lecturer of note. He has graduated from the Nanking Theological Seminary, and taken graduate work at the Hartford Theological school, and the Union Theological Seminary. For six years he was dean and professor in West China Theological seminary in China, and at the conclusion of the second world war he became executive secretary of the Chungking Y.M.C.A. Before coming to America last year Dr. Shih

Class In Magic At Youth Center

A new class in the art of magic is being formed by the Andover Youth center, with Walter E. Billings of Wolcott ave., as the instructor. This type of hobby is sure to fascinate the boys and girls. It is hoped that the members of this class will contribute an act in the show that is being planned for the near future.

Recently the Rollerskating club enjoyed an evening of skating at an out-of-town rink accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Colmer, of Yale rd., and Mrs. Frederick Gould of Maple ave., and Mrs. Donald D. Dunn of Sutherland st. An enjoyable evening was had by all and it is planned to take another trip in the near future.

"The facilities of the Andover Youth Center will be used by a new group at 2:30 p.m. Monday and Thursday. Under the direction of Mrs. Walter Pike, this group made up of boys and girls from the Pike School, will be known as Pike's school club.

At a meeting held Monday, Jan. 30, Mrs. Eva Doble explained the equipment needed as well as the other details involved in setting up a rug hooking class. Why not come down to the guild and find out about rug hooking? It might be a hobby that you would like.

At a recent meeting of the Youth Center executive board great appreciation was expressed for the many volunteer workers who are assisting with the present guild problem. At present there are 15 separate activities that are being supervised and run under the direction of volunteer workers. With the available funds it would be an impossibility to have the present program without the assistance of this group of good citizens.

The Glee club under the direction of Edward Romeo, of Chapel ave., met Wednesday, Feb. 1. In the absence of Mr. Romeo the Jan. 18 meeting was presided over by J. Everett Collins. It is expected

Patent Granted Two Local Men

The U. S. Patent office has granted a patent to two Andover men, Fred H. Schaberg and Norris H. Theriault, on an automatic ice cube maker.

This invention pertains to an automatic ice cube maker wherein water is frozen in the form of cubes within a tray which is periodically dumped into a receptacle, refilled and refrozen.

Generally speaking, this apparatus of Messrs. Schaberg and Theriault comprises (1) a pivoted freezing tray having a series of compartments for the individual ice cubes, (2) a water reservoir or pan positioned directly above this tray and containing a number of drip holes, one for each compartment of the tray, (3) a chute by means of which the completed cubes slide into a receptacle, and (4) the necessary refrigeration mechanisms such as a compressor, valves, motor, switches and other co-related parts. In each cycle of operation, the ice in the tray becomes frozen, the tray is tilted, the cubes are discharged therefrom, the tray is returned to its original position, and the flow of water thereto is started and stopped. Of course, all of these steps are performed in properly timed sequence.

However, there are certain specific requirements that must be met in order to insure satisfactory results. For example, there is a tendency for the ice cubes to stick in their respective compartments; and therefore, to overcome this limitation, Messrs. Schaberg and Theriault provide an arrangement whereby hot gases function to loosen the cubes as soon as the freezing procedure is completed. More-

Taxpayers' Ass'n Names Committees

The various committees of the Andover Taxpayers' association for 1950 have been announced by Vincent Treanor, newly elected president, and are presently engaged in going over town budgets. They will complete this phase of their work in time to report at the next meeting of the association which will be held Thursday Feb. 9.

The committees are: Selectmen's budget — General welfare, Edmond E. Hammond, chairman, George L. Gahn; public safety, police and fire, Frank L. Purdon, chairman, George A. Jagger.

School committee, C. Carleton Kimball, chairman, Raymond G. Mowat and Alan F. Dunlop; health department, Vincent Treanor; library, Wallace E. Brimer, chairman, and Samuel Resnik; tree and moth department, John Rasmussen and Robert Mayo; cemetery department, Vincent Treanor; recreation, Samuel Resnik and Lathrop Merrick; finance, bonded debts and special articles, Edmond E. Hammond, Philip K. Allen, Wallace E. Brimer, John J. Mulcahy, Louis E. Gleason and Franklin T. Bigelow.

Board of public works — Joseph A. McCarthy, chairman, Perez O. Lewin, George F. Duffton, James F. Robjant and J. Augustus Remington.

Publicity, Robert Mayo and George A. Jagger; police, Edmond E. Hammond, Louis E. Gleason, Franklin T. Bigelow, Philip K. Allen and Vincent Treanor; membership, J. Augustus Remington, George A. Jagger and Raymond G. Mowat.

Investigators in the $1,200,000 robbery two weeks ago at Brink's, Inc., Boston, found an automobile in a Roxbury barn that was stolen last September from Marion Towler of River rd., West Andover.

Probers of the daring holdup also found in the barn three other stolen vehicles, one a panel truck, and a small arsenal of guns and ammunition believed stolen some time ago from the West Newton armory.

In the cache they also uncovered 13 expensive women's gowns, canned goods, tobacco, a power lawn mower and other loot.

A Dorchester man, arrested in connection with the investigation, was questioned about the West Newton break and also about the hijacking of a truck from a Lowell garage.

Ownership of the West Andover woman's auto was traced through the serial number on the motor. The car had been reported stolen from a parking space at a Lawrence mill Sept. 6. It is believed to have been used by a gang in several robberies.

Students Compete For Scholarships

Students of Pynchard High school are entered in the new "Forum For Living," a state-wide public service campaign which offers opportunity for Massachusetts high school seniors to compete for college scholarships and other awards totalling $8000.

Edward A. Knight of Andover has been named chairman for the Lowell-Lawrence area, which includes Andover. Headquarters for the Lowell-Lawrence area, sponsored by the casualty insurance companies serving Massachusetts, have been established at 362 N. Main st., where information including preliminary questionnaires to be filled in by high school seniors in public, private and parochial schools interested in the competition is available.

For the campaign, the state has been divided into seven districts with committees named in each area to facilitate distribution of information about the competition which is supported by Registrar of motor vehicles, Rudolph F. King. From the questionnaires submitted, boards of local judges will select 60 seniors in each of the seven areas, who will appear on the Sunday radio quiz program starting Feb. 26. Seniors in each week's quiz will receive a $25 U. S. Savings bond and will enter quarter and semi-finals to determine participants for the final broadcast which will be over a state-wide hookup, May 28. Seniors on the final broadcast will receive college scholarships ranging from $2,000 to $300 in value.

Cairnie Appointed Temporary Reserve

Approval of the temporary appointment of Duncan Cairnie, 107 N. Main st., as a reserve police officer has been received by the selectmen from the civil service commission. The appointment was effective Feb. 1 and is for six months.

Since the resignation a few weeks ago of Officer Russel H. Berthel from the permanent force, Warren Maddox a reserve officer, has been filling the vacancy. A permanent appointment will be made by the selectmen as soon as an eligible list is received from the civil service commission.

P. H. S. Sport Briefs

By JOE RAYBALL

Punchard will compete in Class D at the state meet Saturday at the Boston Garden. It is interesting to note that the locals only lost last Class D's championship in the outdoor meet to Weymouth by one point. The locals have shown much strength in the running events this season possibly enough to win the coming meet.

Just as last year's outdoor meet the relay will probably decide the winner. Punchard won the relay last year but Weymouth who had a three point edge on the locals going into the relay got second place and won the meet. It was considered one of the best relay races ever ran in the state. Coach Donald D. Dunn has two of the four boys of last year's team back this year. They are: Capt. Joe Ratyna, Joe Rayball. These boys should gain a few points again this year for the locals. Other boys who are definite threats to place are Ray Collins, Phil Dantos and Louis Fiedler.

P. A. Sports ...

Phillips academy athletic teams scored successes in all their games last Saturday.

In a see-saw basketball game the Blue and White to a 41-39 decision over Peddle school of New Jersey.

The wrestling match was close but the local team managed to win 16-14 against Milton academy.

The fencing team took Boston University freshmen 11-7 while the P.A. track team was downing B. U. freshmen 53-46.

The academy swimmers dunked Gardner High 45-30; and the hockey game scheduled with Hebron academy was cancelled because of lack of ice.

guest speaker at the meeting of the Andover Historical Society at George Washington
Hall, Saturday evening, Jan.
20. Dean Dabney spoke of the history of the Andover Theological Seminary and told how the name of the school was changed from Andover to Theological Seminary in 1827. He also spoke of the lives and work of the men who attended the Theological Seminary and their message to the world.
Dean Dabney brought with him a book, "The Andover Theological Seminary," written by a Japanese, from the University of Tokyo; a miniature of the Andover Theological Seminary building, from Bombay, and another young couple greeting him from their

Spring Styles Will Feature Slender Suits

Now that spring is near, you will want to think about prints and suits and toppers. Suits will be slim, and toppers, short. Many will feature the drop shoulder and bloused back, both of which are fashion news for this spring, according to Marian Corey. Writing in McCall's for February, she describes other spring styles, with a word about sleeveless, bare-neck southern fashions:

"When hesitating over a print, keep your mind firmly on the fact that small prints make up well; and a dark print is ever useful. When spring comes, slim suits and short toppers come too. That may not sound new, but they look new. "One suit has newness in its 'boy jacket'—semi-fitted and so right for the country. The straightness of the skirt is new, also the checked tweed. The razor sharp revers of a grey suit have that new look. It is a town suit, which is terrifically slimming in gabardine.

"Everything is new about the bat-wing jacket, successor to last year's butterfly coat. It blouses at back, and is used for evening as well as sports.

"Six pockets and no buttons make a spring topper very new. It will be a big season for these little coats. Most short coats are buttonless now, but usually have plenty of pockets. Finally, there is the polo coat, now called 'my camel's hair' whether made of camel's hair or not. One model is a shorter version, back belted, its collar and revers in flight.

"The drop shoulder and the bloused back are important spring fashions, and both appear in a suit-dress model for spring. The same two fashions are found again in a striped dress, which also makes a cool casual for the south. Another dress has the suit look, which is the spring look; actually it is one-piece.

"Bare necks and no sleeves"—those are the words heard over and over again wherever there is any talk about southern sportswear. It is also evident that the straight slim skirts seen everywhere else are not welcome in play clothes. Two dresses for sportswear have the right skirts for their type, moderately flared. They are Paris' pocket dresses, and their sleevelessness is the drop-shoulder kind."

A Salute To The Boy Scouts On Their 40th Anniversary

We welcome this opportunity during Boy Scout Week, February 6-12, to extend birthday greetings to the Boy Scouts of America on their 40th anniversary.

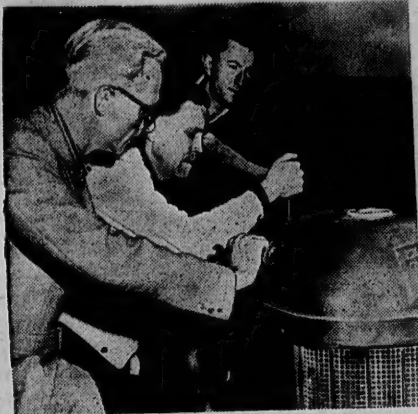

Their program of character building and citizenship training is a distinct asset to our community. The more Boy Scouts we have today the better America will be in the years ahead.

Scouting stands for the highest ideals in our national life. Let us do all in our power to expand this vitally important movement.

From Tractors to Printer's Ink in Refugee Camps

Refugees, now awaiting resettlement in European camps operated by the International Refugee Organization (IRO), a U. N. Specialized Agency, are learning new trades to earn livings in new homes and at the same time are keeping their skills at their former professions. A group of newspaper writers and editors (left) practice their new knowledge of tractor repairing. After finishing their work at mechanics, they turn out newspaper copy for one of 35 journals published in refugee camps. At right, displaced editors of a Latvian-language refugee paper at work.

AT THE LIBRARY

Among the new books at the Memorial Hall Library are the following, any of which may be borrowed or reserved:

The Bubbling Spring Santee
A story of a man who grew up in the old West in the days of buffalo hunts, cattle drives, stagecoaches and Indian fights. Beautifully illustrated by the author.

A River Journey Nathan
A sensitive and typically Nathaniel story of Minnie, who had but a short time to live, and in that time wanted to do something to win a more permanent place in her husband's memory. Charming, and a bit thought-provoking.

The Lily And The Leopards Harwood
Historical novel of Tudor, England, circling around the brief reign of Lady Jane Grey who was queen for only nine days. Vivid picture of the period.

The Freeholder Brown
Horatio Tench, apprentice to the hard ropemaker in England, first heard of the American way of life on the docks of Yarmouth, England. From that day he lived only for the moment when he could have his own piece of ground, his own family and his own freedom.

The Queen Bee Lee
The warning that there would be but one queen bee in any hive should have prepared the girl going into a new family that there was trouble ahead for her, as there proved to be in this romantic, exciting novel.

The Saxon Charm Wakeman
Matt Saxon could make an overnight hit out of a play no other producer would touch. The major theme of this story is the fate of a play of a young novelist the undercurrents are colored by those who suffer from the ruthlessness of the Saxon charm.

Uncolored Summer Waugh
The first book by Alec Waugh in six years, this love story has its setting in the Riviera, New York and London in the years from 1926 through 1944.

Journey Into Christmas Aldrich
A collection of Bess Streeter Aldrich's most beloved stories with a Christmas flavor.

Celia Amherly Lincoln
This is almost a study of the development of the personality of Celia Amherly of upper middle class American life from the times of the Taft administration into the days of Calvin Coolidge.

Loving Green
This book could be called a sociological novel in reverse, for it concerns the lives and loves of the servant's hall in a rich woman's castle in Ireland at the beginning of the war.

How To Make A Home Business Pay Arthur
Here's how to add to your income by developing a home business; how to check the demand for your article or idea, how to locate sources of supply or equipment, how to package, advertise and to stay within the law. Each chapter has a true life story on the subject discussed, gives the profits and costs. Excellent book for this field. How To Make Money At Home Webster

Almost 200 ingenious home-making ideas, tested and used successfully. Excellent companion book for the one previously noted.

MOVIE HOUR AT LIBRARY

There will be a change made in the regular movie and story hour program held at the Memorial Hall Library each month during the school year. For the February programs, films for grades 1 through 3 will be shown at 3:35 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 7, as usual. Grades four through six will have their movie hour immediately following, on the same day, at 4:15 o'clock. Each program will last about three quarters of an hour. Parents are reminded to make arrangements with the children about going home or waiting to be driven home so that there will be no misunderstanding on their part. During the afternoon, these films will be shown: "Robin Redbreast," "Bob Gaffner, Fisherman's Helper," and "The Perfect Tribute." Boys and girls of these grades in all schools of Andover are cordially invited to be present. Movies at Vale Branch

There will be the two showings of films at the Ballardvale branch of the Memorial Hall Library, at 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, for the younger and older groups respectively. These films will be shown during the evening: "Bob Gaffner, Fisherman's Helper," "Men of Gloucester," "Champion Basketball" and "The Perfect Tribute." Adults are welcome at either program. This series is presented under the joint sponsorship of the Ballardvale PTA and the Memorial Hall Library.

Listening to Music

The first of four evenings planned to improve the listening pleasure of those who wish to attend will be held at the Memorial Hall library on Monday, February 6, at 7:45 o'clock and for the three consecutive Mondays. William Louis Schneider, instructor of instrumental music at Phillips Academy, will conduct the series. The subject of the first meeting will be "Tone Color." It will be a discussion of the various colors and shapes which are associated with music, and a consideration of the composer as a tone painter. A film "Color Studies of Chopin" will be shown, which interprets the music of the master in color. The selections Nocturne Op. 15 No. 2; Mazurka Op. 7 No. 3 and Etude Op. 10 No. 12 are played by Witold Malcuzynski, with commentary by Olin Downes. The public is cordially invited to the series.

Model Meet

There will be a model meet held in the Memorial Hall library, at 7 p.m., Friday, Feb. 3 to bring to a close a successful exhibit of train and plane models, made for the most part by borrowers of the young people's room of the library. All who are interested in models or model-making are cordially invited to be present, and it is hoped that adults will form a part of the group. Ribbons will be awarded the various classes of entries, and those who have not exhibited during the two weeks may bring in models for the meet.

Short Shifts

"You're not the same baby sitter we left here at seven with our Rudy Mae," gasped the matron, coming in at midnight. "No, I'm not," replied the girl, calmly. "Marcelline, the sitter you hired, had a special phone call and her sister took over for her at 8:30. Then her sister got a call and I took over at 10:15. And if you hadn't come soon there would have been a neighbor on the job."

Legion Thanks All For Toy Donations

Commander Richard Wrigley of Andover post, 8, American Legion, wishes to thank the people of the town for their fine cooperation in making "Tide of Toys" drive a success. The toys will be shipped to the needy children of Europe. "Once again Andover has gone over the top," says Commander Wrigley, "and we were able to ship 15 large cartons to Philadelphia, from where the toys are to be shipped. We know the children who receive them are going to be very happy as well as the children who gave them."

"We also noticed several addresses attached to the toys. If, some day, you may receive a letter or card from any of these children please contact the Legion post as we are very much interested in this matter."

MOTHERS CLUB

The Andover Mothers' club will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 2, at the home of the president, Mrs. George F. Symonds, 4 Beach circle. The committee in charge are, Mrs. Michael Bell, Mrs. Annie Platt and Mrs. George Symonds.

Polio Drive Nears Top

Collections in the polio campaign already have gone over the $1300 mark but with returns expected from several other sources and coin boxes the committee anticipates the fund this year will surpass the $2145 donated here this year.

In addition the senior class of Pynchard High school will present "Life With Father" at the Memorial auditorium Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, and the proceeds will go toward the campaign.

The play will be presented by the same cast that scored such a marked success a few weeks ago under the direction of Mervin E. Stevens of the Pynchard faculty.

Firemen Honor Fred L. Collins

Fred L. Collins was honored last night by the Andover Firemen's Relief association upon his retirement as president after serving 25 years in office.

About 50 members of the association and their guests sat down to a catered supper at the central fire station. During the evening Mr. Collins was presented with an engraved wallet containing a sum of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who reside at 79 Summer st., will leave today for a two-months' vacation in Florida.

In 1947 the Library of Congress contained more than 7 million books.

Obituaries...

MRS. TIMOTHY J. MCCARTHY

A former resident of Andover, Mrs. Margaret (Craik) McCarthy, 69 Bailey st., Lawrence, wife of Timothy McCarthy, died early Sunday morning at the family home after a brief illness.

Born here, the daughter of the late James and Mary (Bradley) Craik, she had made her home in South Lawrence for many years.

Besides her husband, a retired Lawrence fire department official, she leaves two sisters: Mrs. David Gordon of Andover, and Miss Mary Craik of Cambridge; two brothers, George Craik of Lynn, and Willard Craik of Swampscott, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held from the John J. Hart, Jr. funeral home Wednesday morning with a high mass of requiem at 9 o'clock in St. Patrick's church. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, No. Andover.

PETER S. MYATT

The funeral of Peter S. Myatt, 3 Highland ave., who died Thursday was held Saturday from the M. A. Burke funeral home, with a high mass of requiem at 9:30 a.m. in St. Augustine's church. The Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A. celebrated the mass.

Burial was in St. Augustine's cemetery where Father Smith conducted committal services. The bearers were: Ernest J. Pullan, Benjamin L. Locke, Norman La Vange, Paul Robinson, Alden Coggins and Phillip Alacon.

MISS EDITH R. FRASER

The funeral of Miss Edith Rebecca Fraser, Haggetts Pond, rd., who died Thursday, Jan. 26, was held from the late home Saturday at 2 p.m.

Rev. John G. Gaskill, pastor of the West Parish Congregational church officiated. Burial was in West Parish cemetery, where Mr. Gaskill conducted committal services.

The bearers were: Howard Russell, Bruce Russell, Ernest Russell, Malcolm Gavin and Chester Doe.

Miss Fraser, who celebrated her 85th birthday Jan. 24, had been in ill health for some time. A native of Prince Edward Island, Canada, she made her home here for 40 years. She is survived by four sisters, Miss Mary F. Fraser, Mrs. William Russell of Milford, N. H., Mrs. Frederick June and Miss Isabella Fraser, both of Arlington; a brother, William S. Fraser of Boston and several nieces and nephews.

representative of Book House attended a sales meeting recently at the company's office in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Stevens and daughters attended the 81st birthday party of Mrs. Stevens' mother, Mrs. Fred Thresher, which was held Sunday at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Herbert Hancock, Greenwood. A delicious roast beef dinner was served to 13 members of the family. Mrs. Thresher received numerous cards and flowers in honor of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Lewis Lowell, st., visited with friends in Salem on Sunday.

Ernest O. Dick, Kansas City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Pollard, New Braintree and Miss Margaret Dick, Longmeadow, were all weekend guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dick, High Plain rd.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horne, Lowell st., are enjoying a several weeks' business trip through the South.

Mrs. William Meiky and daughter Susan, of Holden spent the weekend with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thomas of Lowell st.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

PUTTING BRAKES ON THE SPEEDERS

The pledge of Trial Justice Richard K. Gordon to stamp out speeding in Andover will be heartily welcomed by everybody but the speeders themselves.

Motorists who comply with the law too often see many flagrant violations of the traffic rules by those who seem to be in a great hurry. For their own protection and for the protection of pedestrians they will concur with the court in this action.

As Justice Gordon observes, no speeder has the moral or legal right to say that a life is worth the few seconds he may gain by traveling at a speed which is greater than reasonable and proper through the town.

Local police, with the small number of officers they have to cover all the roads of the town, have been doing commendable work in curbing speeders. Now they can continue their efforts, confident of the support of the local court.

A NOTABLE BIRTHDAY

America's boy scouts and leaders, now numbering 2,300,000 strong, are observing the 40th anniversary of their organization from Feb. 6 to 12. Andover's scout membership is 231, a gain of 43 in a year. Scouting has become so woven into the American way of life it is difficult to recall when our nation did not have this character-building, leisure time program for its youth.

Since 1910, more than 16,500,000 American boys and men have had the benefits of the training, fellowship, handicraft skills and high adventure of scouting. America is all the richer for it. Many men in high places in American affairs today proudly credit Scouting's influence in their lives.

The year-in, year-out civic and emergency service to the nation by boy scouts, needs no recital here. Scouting brings to boys at an important time in their lives a program of worthwhile activities, under high grade volunteer leadership.

The need is for more boys to have the advantage of scout training. Although more than 2,300,000 boys and leaders are now in scouting, there are thousands of boys still outside the organization. They can get into the fun if more institutions open their doors to them in their own neighborhoods, and if more men interested in boys, volunteer their time as leaders. It's an investment that pays off richly in personal satisfactions.

THE MOVES BEHIND THE NEWS

Seldom has a book of recent years attracted such wide attention as the candid and blunt volume "The Road Ahead" by John T. Flynn, now in its fourth printing.

Mr. Flynn wrote this book about America's "creeping revolution" to answer a question: Where are we heading? He feels the road is obvious. It is a road with several stopovers. The first is socialism on the British model. There we come to a fork, one prong leading to communism, the other to fascism.

He believes it is a mistake of the first magnitude to hold the American Communist party and its dupes to be the chief internal enemy of our economic system and our form of government. Not that he underestimates the danger from communists whom he terms a traitorous bloc in our midst, but "they are not as dangerous to us in the struggle now under way to change our internal institutions as another wholly indigenous movement."

The leaders of this movement are more dangerous because they occupy positions of power, are more numerous, more respectable, and are not tainted with the odium of treachery. He tabs them socialist planners operating after the style of the British Fabian Socialists, who in their plan of social reform first accustom the citizens to look to the state for the correction of all their ills.

"Only when we see the picture as a whole," he says, "can we understand the reason behind the struggle to arouse the Negroes of the South; understand the strange collection of forces which have created such havoc in the political parties in New York and other cities; comprehend the extent to which the mind of American youth is being shaped in schools and colleges.

"Strangest of all, to those who have looked upon the Christian church as the great bulwark against the march of communism and socialism, is the extent to which the churches have been paralyzed by our socialist conspirators."

Reading this excellent volume one can more readily perceive some of the real "moves behind the news."

A GRASS-ROOTS COUNTRY

The government of this nation is dominated by small towns and the rural areas — not by the great city populations. That striking fact is developed in an analysis of the U. S. congress published in the December issue of the American Press.

The analysis shows that 76 out of the 96 senators—79 per cent—are elected by rural majorities, and that 54 per cent of the representatives represent more rural counties than urban counties. For the purpose of the study, a rural county was considered to be one in which there is no community with more than 10,000 population.

The point is that, in spite of the growth of the cities, this is still a grass-roots country. The people on the farms, in the villages, and in the small municipalities have the dominant voice when it comes to electing the men who make our laws.

Views of The News

We have assumed that the past Germany policy of 1870, 1914 and 1939 is now to be abandoned. We persuade ourselves that Germans admit their error in supporting Hitler. More nearly the truth is that the Germans blame Hitler for losing, not for trying. And the focus of hatred is the United States.

U. S. A. Snatched Victory From Germany

Four times during the last war we snatched victory from the very grasp of Germany. What saved Britain from France's fate in 1940 after the disaster of Dunkirk? American supplies to a determined Britain. Germany might have taken Moscow in 1941. Again American supplies helped to turn the tide. In Africa, Rommel was virtually at the Egyptian border. American supplies stopped him and helped him back; Germany did not control the Mediterranean and the Middle East. Had Germany been able to develop her V-weapons and her atomic power, she could still have won the immediate war. But American planes smashed her industries, American troops broke her armies. These events are well remembered by the Germans, and not on the credit side.

German propagandists do not fail to point out that in past history Germany has failed when fighting Russia, but has succeeded when they were allies. The present dream is that future alliance can bring success.

Americans, bred to the democratic tradition, will be quick to point out that Germany would not accept domination by communist Russia. But that is the dangerous black and white view of international politics. Because we dislike Russia, we suppose that others must feel the same.

Can Russia Assist Germany?

What do the German industrialists probably think of the United States? They are afraid that western markets will be captured by America. But if Germany could be united and the occupation ended, then those industrialists anticipate a huge market across the breadth of Russia, down through the vastness of China. And those industrialists must be aware that China's needs and demands upon Russia for industrial supplies simply accentuate Germany's potential assistance to Russia. Propaganda already joins in spirit the communists of Eastern Germany and the nationalists of Western Germany. Together they can march forward. All Germans would benefit. The militarists would get revenge and power. The industrialists would reap huge profits. The ardent nationalists would get unity. The Fourth Reich would be greater than Hitler's. That's the gamble. And it promises more hope of victory with Russia than with the United States and the west.

Is History Repeating Itself?

Already the Nazi generals are openly demanding infantry and armored divisions for Western Germany. If we think they would be used to fight Russia out of fondness for the United States, our awakening can be tragic. Already the industrialists of the Ruhr have regained much of their former power. They have halted Allied dismantling of German industry.

The French perceive similarity between the 1920's and today. After World War I German economy was rebuilt largely through American financing. And later she repudiated all her obligations, underwrote Hitler's program for conquest, and nearly succeeded. Today Western Germany is being fed by American dollars, is being rebuilt on American unwillingness to face hard and unpalatable facts.

Germany already has much to offer Russia. She has given her Field Marshal von Paulus and von Seydlitz, the organizer of the Committee of German Officers in Moscow. She can offer Russia an open road to the Rhine, a trained general staff, technicians, manpower and industrial equipment. By allying with Russia, Germany could achieve her persistent objectives. She could break through the Franco-British barrier, overthrow west European rule, and gain the "living-room" she has always coveted. As she weighs the evidence, she gambles on Russia's winning another war.

(This is the third of a series of four articles.)

MEET —

MARIAN L. ABBOTT

Well known among musicians of the town is Marian L. Abbott, teacher of pianoforte and accompanist.

Born in Andover, Miss Abbott was graduated from Pynchard High school, and obtained much of her musical education through private instruction, with various teachers, including Raymond Havens and Albion Metcalf of Boston. She received her music teachers diploma from the Sherwood Music school of Chicago, and later attended summer sessions conducted by the well known Guy Maier at Asheville, North Carolina. During the summer of 1931 she studied at the Tobias Matthay school of music in London, and is a member and state chairman of the American Matthay association.

Following four generations of her family she is a member of, and also organist at the West Parish church.

With her mother and sister she resides at 7 Cedar rd., where she maintains her pianoforte studio.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago—February 1900

James W. Murray, a former resident of Ballardvale, elected tax collector of Melrose with a salary of $1,000, with $600 additional for clerk hire. It gives us special pleasure to record the rise and advance of the former residents of the village.

The Courteous Circle of the South church was addressed by Miss Lunn, superintendent of Deaconess hospital, Boston, on mission work at Rome as she saw it on a recent visit. Both the subject and speaker were unusually interesting.

A neighborhood social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson in the south part of the town. The people enjoyed the pleasant evening.

New lockers for the surpluses of the boys' choir at Christ church have been placed in position at the parish house.

Andover has some very old people but not any as aged as Merimac's centenarian, Mrs. Sally Weed, who passed her 102nd birthday last Sunday. She is in remarkably good health considering her extreme old age.

Town officers are working on their reports.

The "smoker" at the Andover club Friday evening was attended by nearly 75 members and friends. Curtis G. Morse gave a series of readings, impersonations and songs in a manner which thoroughly pleased and amused his audience.

The death of Miss Lucy E. NeSmith which occurred at Kitterell, North Carolina, was a shock to her large circle of friends. She was the owner and occupant of the beautiful estate called Hiddenfield, which is located on Porter st. over the hill.

25 Years Ago—February 1925

Stuart Henry, son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Henry of Central st. was one of the Harvard students who witnessed the eclipse from Williamantic, Conn.

Ha! the thermometer took another tumble early Wednesday evening, the glass registering one of the lowest temperatures ever recorded in this vicinity. Shawshen boasted 28 degrees below zero.

New construction during the past year as well as large investment in remodeling existing buildings is shown by the records of the building inspector. The type of building constructed shows the steady growth of Andover as a residential town.

The Rev. Markham W. Stackpole will be the preacher at Abbott academy Sunday.

Plans are going forward for the colonial ball to be given by the Andover Historical society. It is hoped to have the party the biggest ever held in Andover.

John Collins of West Parish expects to collect a bounty of five dollars from the state as the reward for shooting a wildcat near his home on North st. It weighed nine pounds and Game Warden Larkin estimated that it was about a year old.

Four rooms were gutted, with damage estimated at $3,000, by a fire at the Bourdells home, 100 Osgood road. This is said to be one of the oldest houses in Andover, said to have been built in 1730. The firemen were able to confine flames from a huge beam of the old-fashioned chimney to the rear of the house.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George P. Byington, High st. Mrs. Byington is the oldest member of the society.

10 Years Ago—February 1940

Firemen from Lawrence, North Andover and North Reading were called to aid in a blaze which threatened to destroy the entire interior of the Argyle apartments in Shawshen village.

Abbott Cheever, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cheever of Chestnut st. has been named to do a mural decoration at the Madeson, Conn. post-office. His preliminary drawings having been approved by the section of fine arts, public buildings administration of the federal government.

A meeting of the Andover ministers was held at the home of the Rev. Herman C. Johnson. The Rev. Donald H. Savage of the West church was elected chairman for the coming year.

A number of Andover Republicans are planning to attend a meeting of the Lincoln Republican club of Haverhill at the state armory in that city. Congressman Dewey Short of Missouri will speak.

Two new members were admitted to the Square and Compass club at the annual banquet.

The Andover Hockey club will meet the Manchester, N. H. team Sunday afternoon at the new hockey rink on the playstead. The upstate team is highly rated, having had a splendid record last year.

How to Hurt

On the bus, two giddy young things were discussing men.

"Tell me, Marjorie," said the unsophisticated one, "what do you do if a man persists in asking for a dance—and you hate him?"

"Tell him your card's full," answered the knowing one.

"Is that all?" asked the first.

"Oh, goodness, no," said the smart one. "Say it is—and then let him see it isn't."

Variety Night Held Weekly At YWCA

Variety night is held at the Lawrence YWCA every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

The program opens with a class in rhythmic exercises and relaxation. The exercises are designed for limbering, reducing, and building strong bodies. This is followed by a period of sport and concludes with folk dancing and square dancing instruction. For the second five weeks of the program there will be special instruction in ballroom dancing.

Variety night is a continuous program open to women and girls. Young men are included in the dancing instruction. Admission to variety night is on a special single night basis.

On Feb. 15 there will be a special Valentine's day party in place of the regular activities.

Every Monday evening at 7 o'clock there are basketball classes for women and girls out of school.

Blue And Gold Record At Half-Way Mark

The Pynchard basketball team was enjoying a seven and three record going into Tuesday afternoon's game with Amesbury. Of the two losses suffered only one could possibly hinder the locals' chances of attending the Tech tourney this year. The other two losses were suffered to teams out of the "swish-kids" class.

1950 Heart Campaign To Run All Month

The 1950 Heart campaign to raise $350,000 in Massachusetts and $6,000,000 nationally to finance the Heart association's program of research, education and community service was launched this week throughout the nation. The official dates of the American Heart association's 1950 drive are from Feb. 1 through 28, and the campaign of the Massachusetts Heart association covers the same period, according to Christian A. Herter, Jr., state chairman.

Cooperating with the drive on both the national and state levels are labor organizations, veterans associations, leaders of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths, civic, social and fraternal groups and a large army of volunteer workers.

Catholic School Guild To Hold Party Feb. 15

St. Augustine's Catholic School Guild will sponsor a bridge, whist, and penny social in the school hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 15.

Door prizes will be awarded and prizes will also be awarded to the high scorers. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Leo Pimpare is chairman of the committee in charge.

Onslow Sees Red Sox Winning A. L. Pennant

The Red Sox will win the pennant if they get out and hustle; second place will be between the Yanks and Detroit, and it will be a scramble from there in.

That is the view of the 1950 American League race which Jack Onslow, manager of the Chicago White Sox presented at a largely attended meeting of the Andover Service Club at the Andover Inn last Thursday night.

Introduced at the after-dinner session by Frank L. Brigham, past president of the club who had charge of the program, the Pale Hose leader launched his talk by asking the $64 sport question of the past season, what is the matter with the Red Sox?

"Man for man, I would say they are the best in the American League," he said. "If they would hustle a little more in the spring and early summer they would not have had to go down the line tied at the end of the season."

In the hour and 10 minutes of his talk, mostly in a humorous vein, he told his audience that it was going to be an interesting race in the American League next season. "If the Red Sox could take that left field fence with them they would be a tough club to beat, all season."

He felt that his own club, which finished last in 1948 with 101 games lost, and sixth in 1949, would be an improved team this year. He placed a great deal of his confidence in this prediction on the return of Gus Zernial, who was batting .358 when he was hurt last year. He paid a nice tribute to Luke Appling, "the best hit and run man in baseball right now," and felt that teams who did not have long hitters would have to pay more attention to work on the bases and bunting. Base stealing, he said, was a lost art but it can be done.

Fenway park is a tough ball park for a visiting club, he went on to say. One reason was because the Sox have the range of that left field fence. He also said he thought they knew what was being pitched, especially when they got a man on second. Williams, he said, can hit to left field. Onslow tells his twirlers to pitch him inside to make him pull, and to give him breaking stuff to make him hit into the dirt. Then with the infield switched to the right they can cut down some of the slugger's hits.

His views of what television has done for baseball were novel. Some players now have private signals for the woman at home, such as touching the back of the cap to mean "I love you dear." He told of umpires, who once turned their backs to the audience when they dusted the plate, now being sure they face the camera when they perform this chore.

At the conclusion of his talk a movie of the last world series was shown.

Walter E. Buxton club president, was in the chair at the dinner meeting, which was opened with prayer by the Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., of St. Augustine's church.

Irving Whitcomb was the dinner guest of the evening, and George Follansbee won the door prize offered by Mr. Bingham, a pair of box seats to the first White Sox-Red Sox game at Fenway park next season.

The next meeting of the club will be held Feb. 9 with Roland L. Luce in charge of the program. The speaker will be Daniel A. Murphy, supervisor of detectives of the arson division of the fire marshal's office. His talk will be illustrated with moving pictures.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I am a World War I veteran and I have been receiving pension for a non-service-connected disability from VA for about five years. I am now 48 years old. Will I have to wait until I am 65 years old to be allowed an increase in pension?

A—Your pension will be continued at the present rate until you have received it for ten years, after which it will be increased to $72 according to present laws.

Q—I am receiving vocational rehabilitation under Public Law 16. How long after I finish my course do I continue to receive subsistence checks from VA?

A—You are entitled to receive your subsistence allowance for two months after your employability has been determined.

Q—I incurred some expense to bury my brother who died while going to a VA hospital. Will VA reimburse me for funeral expenses which I paid at that time?

A—VA may pay your claim, but it must be filed within two years from the date of permanent burial. The burial allowance, which cannot be in excess of $150, is payable only to undertakers or to reimburse the person who paid funeral expense.

Q—Will VA lend me the money to build a home. I was honorably discharged after four years of service in World War II.

A—VA does not lend money. You must make your own arrangements for the loan through the usual financing channels. VA then will guarantee your lender against loss up to 50 percent of the loan, with a maximum guarantee of $4,000 on real estate and $2,000 on non-real estate loans.

"MARCH OF DIMES" PROGRAM

The members of the student body held a "March of Dimes" in Monday's assembly, with each pupil dropping his contribution into the coin box as he entered the auditorium. Miss Ruth Wescott, school nurse, presented, through the courtesy of the Andover Fire department, two very significant films, showing the great need for our dimes and the worthy cause for which they are used.

One movie, entitled "Epidemic's Children," was made by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and was based on actual scenes from the tragic polio epidemic of 1949. The second, a color film put out by the Essex County chapter, depicted life at Camp Sea Haven, a summer camp on Plum Island for polio stricken children of Essex County.

Let's all contribute to the "March of Dimes" and help those who are afflicted with this dread disease!

THE BRADDOCK, a small two bedroom house, utilizes the garage that is attached to the blank wall formed by the stairs and the entrance vestibule.

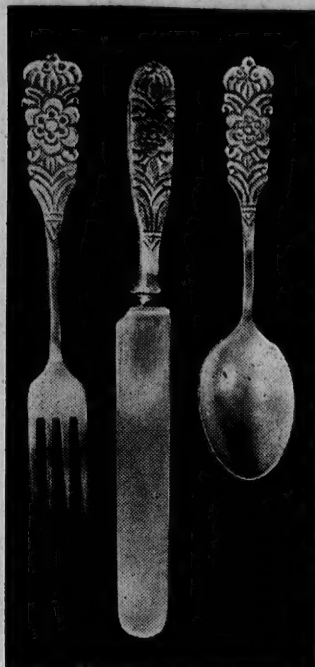

bule to present a wide front. Both, the garage door and the front entrance, are amply protected by the wide sheltering roof overhang.

The adjoining kitchen and bathroom, with the laundry directly below, groups the plumbing. The bedroom closets are the wardrobe type. The front vestibule holds a large linen cabinet and coat closet.

The exterior is finished with wide siding. The living room has a large double glazed picture window with flanking corner windows. The low pitched hip roof is constructed with asphalt shingles.

Overall dimensions are 44 feet by 28 feet. The living room projection is 5 feet 6 inches. The floor area is 896 square feet excluding the garage, while the cubage is 17,374 cubic feet.

P. A. Sports...

Track prospects at Andover for the winter term look brighter as the season progresses, with consecutive wins the past two Saturdays over Tufts and B. U. Freshman teams. The latter meet, which provided plenty of thrills, was not decided until the last B. U. man dropped out of the high jump, the last event; the final score was Andover 53, B. U. Freshman 46.

Co-Captain Dud Shepard of West Newton and Walt Jones of LaGrange, Ill., are two of the runners who will compete against Exeter in the traditional Exeter-Andover relay next Saturday in the B.A.A. games. From an unusually large number of qualified runners available, final choice to fill the bill will be made among Ian Williams, Australian member of the senior class, Bill Flanders of Meriden, Conn., Bill Wright of Deeth, Nev. and Johnny Kohler of Palo Alto, Cal.

With an undefeated record so far this season, the Andover varsity wrestling team faces Tabor next Saturday, at Andover. Dick Pieters' matmen, led by Captain Tuck Gordon of Carnegie, Pa., have won meets from Bowdoin Freshmen, Perkins Institute, Wellesley High and Milton Academy's first team. The Andover second team lost to Milton seconds last Saturday, but the first squad turned in a close and thrilling victory, 16-14.

Hampered by lack of ice, but working hard at their game, the Andover hockey squad faces Medford high as this release goes out.
The Blue lost their third straight game at the Lynn arena last Wednesday to Stoneham high, 4-2.
contests to Harvard Freshmen and to Belmont Hill. The game with Hebron, which was scheduled

Pert Pique

Waistcoat or "weakit" — no matter how you pronounce it — means one of the nattiest fashion favorites you can wear. Here it is in crisp, white Lonsdale pique, teamed with navy skirt of the same fabric, as one of the California styles featured in the February Good Housekeeping.
The "weakit" can be worn under suits in winter, making it a versatile value at $8. And $12 buys the skirt which, like its teammate, is made by Marjorie Montgomery.

Outline Reasons For New Reservoir

water might possibly be a danger to the community or even a serious inconvenience to the individual water taker.

"At the present time all water used in the town is pumped to the low service reservoir with the exception of that which is directly drawn from the distributor system before it has an opportunity to reach the reservoir. The present reservoir contains 1.5 million gallons when full and the high service reservoir contains 0.5 million gallons when full, making a total available storage of 2.0 million gallons. This storage available for distribution is the only real quantity of water that the town can rely on in times of distress. Every effort is made to keep these reservoirs full at all times and it is only during the times when demand exceeds the capacity of the main pumps that any real draft is made on the reservoirs. However, the reservoirs should be large enough to meet the demand when called upon.

"Available storage should be at least one maximum day's supply plus that required for fire protection. With a station based half on steam pumping and half on electric pumping it may well be considered that more than one day's demand should be in storage due to the length of time required to make repairs to steam equipment.

"The present fire flow requirements amount to 750,000 gallons and the maximum daily demand of last summer was 3,610,000 gallons; a total of 4,360,000 gallons to be obtained from the present storage of 2,000,000 gallons! Had one pump failed last summer, and had a serious fire occurred at the same time there would have been only thirteen and one-half hours water in storage—definitely not sufficient for the present or future, and the reason that increased reservoir capacity is needed. Furthermore, had both pumps failed under such conditions, even with both reservoirs full the system would have been drained in just eight hours.

"The Board of Public Works at present has tentative plans for the construction of a six-million gallon reservoir to augment the existing storage. This reservoir when completed will result in a total available storage of eight million gallons. Under similar demand conditions this available storage would last for four days if it is assumed that one pump at Haggetts Pond were to be run continuously. If no pumping were to be done during this time the over, the water from the reservoir is timed to first fall upon the bottom of the inverted tray, a factor that also aids in the quick release of the cubes. As an additional feature, gases serve to prevent the bearings, upon which the tray is mounted, from becoming frozen or stuck.

Thus, it is claimed that the apparatus of this invention is positive in operation, fool-proof in action, and capable of use without trouble.

The application for this patent, which consists of eleven claims of originality, was filed on June 12, 1948.

Mr. Schaberg, a member of the firm of Gerrish Peters & Co., refrigeration equipment, Lawrence, has lived in Andover for the past three years, coming here from New Jersey with his wife and son, 13, a pupil in the Junior high school, he lives at 10 Dufton rd.

Mr. Therriault, service manager of the Gerrish Peters firm, came here from Manchester, N. H., and with his wife and two children lives at 154 High st.

supply would last for two full days.

"It has been forecast that the water demand will reach 4,500,000 gallons maximum daily between 1975 and 1980. At that rate of demand the above-mentioned eight million gallons of storage would serve for about one and one-half days with no pumping or two and one-half days with one pump running continuously. From this it can be seen that the town will again be faced with the necessity of enlarging the Low Service Reservoir about thirty years hence. However, it is not economically justifiable to construct a huge reservoir at this time, and one of the capacity selected is sufficiently large to adequately serve its purpose of maintaining the low service storage during its economic life.

"It is felt that the foregoing is a fairly concise explanation of why a new reservoir is urgently needed at this time. However, it should be definitely stated that the reservoir is by no means the end of contemplated and needed water works construction—it is only the most urgently needed item.

"Water works expansion for a growing community or for a growing demand is a continuing process. Larger and more efficient pumping capacity is needed for the High Service System. The force main to the High Service Reservoir needs to be rehabilitated for the present and will need enlargement in the future. No doubt the High Service Reservoir will need enlargement in the near future for the same relative reasons that the Low Service Reservoir needs enlargement now. "Enlargement of the basic storage basin at Haggetts Pond will soon be indicated and the pumping facilities at that location will require enlargement if the daily average demand continues to increase as it has in recent years. At the present moment a new boiler is required at Haggetts Pond to replace one installed in 1910 and which has recently been condemned by the insurance inspectors.

"Also high on the list of improvements needed within the next ten years is the continuation of the force main from Phillips Street to Baneroff Road Pumping Station. It is hoped that the reason for this and certain other needed water works improvements may be brought before the public before the town meeting."

The modern shotgun is of 10, 12, or 16 gauge.

Dr. Siah To Speak At University Of Life Series Sunday

spent four months visiting the many cities of China. His knowledge of that country is up-to-date and he has many thrilling stories to tell. His audiences enjoy learning the truth about China from one of her native sons, and appreciate the many classical humorisms which he introduces.

Seminars will follow the chapel service at 8 o'clock. Dr. Siah will address the church seminar on the subject "Christian Movements in China" and will give opportunity for questions and answers. The Rev. F. B. Noss will present Dr. Siah.

The Bible seminar will hear Dr. A. C. F. Auer, professor of History and Theology at the Harvard Divinity school, present the "Life of Christ". He will be introduced by the Rev. Levering Reynolds, Jr.

The young people are fortunate to hear Wilson Chen, a graduate student of the University of Shanghai, and at present attending the Andover Newton Theological school. His subject will be, "The Christian Youth Movement in China". He will be introduced to the young people by the Rev. Paul E. Callahan.

The buffet supper will be served at 6:15 before the chapel service by the women of the West and the Union Congregational churches.

Herbert P. Carter, chairman of the University of Life, which is sponsored by the Andover council of churches, states that registrations have exceeded those of last year and the continued interests promises a larger attendance than ever.

Shoshone Falls, in Idaho, are 700 feet in height.

Few Contests Loom In Coming Elections

didates expire and they are running for re-election. Two are to be elected for three-year terms and one is to be elected for a two-year term.

Mrs. Dorothy T. Partridge and Atty. Vincent F. Stulgis are candidates for re-election to the three-year term. Papers for the three-year terms are in circulation for Atty. Anna M. Greeley and Ernest Picard.

For the two-year term Mrs. Katherine A. Baldwin is seeking re-election. In this contest nomination papers are in circulation for Persis D. Crawford, Anna M. Greeley and William P. Hamblet of 62 Chestnut st.

Another contest appears to be certain for the one vacancy to be filled on the Andover housing authority. Atty. Charles G. Hatch, chairman of the board, is a candidate for re-election. Atty. William G. Quigley of 502 N. Main st., has filed his papers for this office.

For the three constables to be elected another contest is in prospect. The present incumbents, George A. Dane, George N. Sparks and J. Lewis Smith, are candidates for re-election. Papers are in circulation for Chester J. S. Harnden of 28 Florence st.

For the office of tree warden G. Richard Abbott is a candidate for re-election and papers are being circulated for Thomas D. Blunt of 70 Salem st.

Unopposed at the present are the following candidates for re-election: Moderator, Arthur Sweetney; selectman, J. Everett Collins; assessor, J. Everett Collins; treasurer, Thaxter Eaton; board of health, William V. Emmons; planning board, Frederick E. Cheever; trustee Memorial Hall library, Arthur W. Reynolds.

Class In Magic At Youth Center

that this group will be one of the coming highlights of the guild show.

Under the direction of Victor Buschmann, Woburn st., Foster's pond, the Junior Ski club will meet at 7 p.m. Saturday. Members and prospective members should bring their skis and ski boots as a demonstration will take place in the gymnasium for the various skiing maneuvers. The last meeting on ski equipment proved very interesting.

The Good Grooming class at the guild had an interesting session on facials and manicuring. It is planned to take up home permanents at the next meeting. The present class will end in three weeks, at which time another class will be formed which will be opened to junior, intermediate, and senior girls of the Andover Guild.

The following members were present at the monthly meeting held Jan. 26: chairman, Stafford A. Lindsay, Kenneth L. Sherman, Miss Anne Harnedy, Harry I. Emmons, the Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A. Roy E. Hardy, John Johnson, Mrs. Walter Partridge and Edward Shea. Those not in attendance were Frank Petty, Miriam Putnam, Arthur Cole, and Mrs. Foster Barnard. A tour of inspection was made of the premises, and the program was reviewed.

The businessmen's class at the guild is seeing more new faces each week. This is open to adults and it is hoped that more men will take advantage of this activity.
